Anne Brandon Will Discuss US Tariff Developments and Mitigation Strategies at AIJA Webinar

Yormick Law LLC Associate, Anne Brandon, will speak at the upcoming International Association of Young Lawyers (AIJA) webinar, How US Trade Measures Are Reshaping Sales and Distribution Contracts. She will be joined by Daniela Flores, a Partner at EC Rubio, a prominent Mexican law firm. The discussion will be moderated by Alessandro Paci, Counsel at RPLT RP legalitax, with 6 offices in Italy.

In this webinar, Anne will highlight recent developments in US tariffs and how Yormick Law has advised US and non-US companies on duty mitigation strategies and managing and allocating tariff-related risks. The webinar will also examine the contractual impact of these tariffs, including available remedies. Special attention will be given to key contractual provisions, such as price adjustment clauses and force majeure language, and their importance in existing and newly negotiated agreements.

The event is scheduled for Tuesday, 15 July 2025, at 16:00 CEST/10:00 EDT and is intended for an international audience of legal professionals.
