

Yormick Law Continues Providing Thought Leadership on International Trade Issues

It's another busy week for Yormick Law LLC's attorneys. On 12 May 1600 CEST, Anne Brandon, will present an AIJA – International Association of Young Lawyers T.R.A.D.E. Commission (Trade, Retail, Agency, Distribution and E-commerce) webinar to discuss the IEEPA tariff CAPE refund process and how companies should approach recovery opportunities in a strategic and controlled manner. More information and registration can be found at https://www.aija.org/event-detail/926.

Also on 12 May, as part of the US Commercial Service's Export Week, Export Compliance Series, Managing Member, Jon P. Yormick, and Counsel, Rachel Small, will present a webinar on BIS and DDTC Outreach Visits, Enforcement Actions & Voluntary Disclosures. This will be the second presentation in the Export Compliance Series for Yormick and Small, previously presenting on Complying with the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR) on 5 May. More information about and registration for one of more of the remaining webinars in the series can be found at https://www.trade.gov/us-commercial-service-export-week.

Attorney Advertising

This Firm News and the events referenced above are provided for informational purposes only and is not intended to serve as, or provide, legal advice relating to a particular matter.

© 2026 Yormick Law LLC. All rights reserved.