Yormick Law LLC is pleased to announce that Coraly Schreiber will be a featured speaker at the Supply Chain & Logistics Summit 2026, taking place on June 18, 2026, at the Sheraton Puerto Rico Resort & Casino in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Hosted by Industriales de Puerto Rico, the Summit brings together leading professionals from the logistics, transportation, shipping, customs, and supply chain sectors to discuss emerging trends, operational challenges, and strategic opportunities impacting global trade.

Coraly will participate in the "Customs / Tariffs" panel discussion at 2:30 p.m., alongside industry representatives from UPS and Expeditors. The session will explore current customs and tariff developments affecting importers, exporters, and supply chain stakeholders navigating an increasingly complex international trade environment.

Puerto Rico serves as a critical logistics hub connecting the United States, the Caribbean, and international markets, making the Summit a valuable forum for industry leaders to exchange insights, discuss evolving trade dynamics, and develop practical strategies for supply chain resilience and growth.

The event agenda also includes discussions on global economic competitiveness, Middle East-related supply chain disruptions, ocean cargo, air cargo, transportation logistics, and importer challenges.
